NUMB. 356

THE South-Carolina Gazette.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From THURSDAY December 11, to THURSDAY December 18, 1740.

LONDON, October 2.

FROM the Mediterranean, we are inform'd, that, of late, there has been obſerv'd, a large Fiſh ſwimming upon the Surface of the Water, attended by a conſiderable Number of ſmaller of the ſame Kind. It has been thought by moſt skilful in Fiſh, to be ſomewhat between the Haddock and the Numb-Fiſh. It ſeems not to be a Fiſh of Prey; ſmaller Fiſh, of other Species, having been obſerv'd to ſwim juſt before it, and even to inſult it with Impunity. What is very remarkable, it has often retir'd into Port-Mahon, where it has been obſerv'd by moſt of the Garriſon; but has never ſwam near any of the Spaniſh Ports: And even avoids coming near any of the Spaniſh Ships. Some curious Perſons who examined it pretty cloſely, ſay, they have diſcover'd a large Hook in its Mouth; to which they aſcribe its Tameneſs.

An Order is ſent to Ireland for a General Embargo to be laid on all the Shipping in all the Ports of that Kingdom, as the only Expedient at preſent, to ſtop the Export of the Beef of that Country to Foreign Parts.

Six more Fire-Ships are ordered to be put into Commiſſion.

All the Captains of the Men of War and other Officers now in Town, who have Commands at Portſmouth, have Orders to ſet out directly for that Place, it being thought if the Wind continues fair, the Fleet will ſail from Spithead on Sunday next for the Weſt Indies.

By private Letters from Holland we are informed, that the Generality of People there are of Opinion that a War with France is almoſt unavoidable.

They write from Marizon in Mountsbay, the 25th paſt, that a Spaniſh Privateer was ſeen off the Lizard the Sunday before, and that ſhe was a three Maſt Veſſel. We hope, if this be true, to have a good Account of her, his Majeſty's Ship the Scarborough, Capt. Liſle, being appointed to cruiſe off the Land's End.

October 4. Sir Chaloner Ogle and Lord Cathcart having ſent Word that they ſhould have every Thing in Readineſs to ſet ſail on their Expedition To-Morrow, all the Officers belonging to the Fleet ſet out Poſt laſt Night to repair on board their ſeveral Ships.

By the laſt French Poſt there are Letters from Bilboa, which ſay, that two Engliſh Men of War have been ſeen ſeveral Days cruiſing on that Coaſt and before St. Sebaſtian. —For the firſt Time.

October 7. His Majeſty is expected here from Hanover on Sunday next, if the Wind proves fair.

A Promotion of General Officers, we are told, is to be made ſhortly after his Majeſty's Arrival.

The Admiralty have receiv'd Letters from Admiral Vernon by the Greenwich Man of War arriv'd at Falmouth in which Commodore Brown is alſo arrived.

There are but few Days paſs without ſome Perſons arriving here from Dunkirk, who have left that Place upon Suppoſition that they are look'd upon as troubleſome Gueſts at preſent; and all of them confirm the Accounts of the French fortifying the Place.

We hear that an Order has been ſent to the Commanders of his Majeſty's Ships of War in the Downs, not to ſuffer any of the French Fiſhing-Boats, or Veſſels, to paſs by or fiſh on the Coaſts in Kent, Suſſex, &c.

The Nisbet Galley, Capt Mackey for Jamaica, with a Letter of Marque, 120 Hands and 24 Guns, is fallen down the River on her Voyage; and ſeveral Merchant-Ships, from a known Opinion of the Captain's Bravery, are preparing to ſail under his Wing, and wait no longer for a Convoy.

We hear that three new Regiments of Foot, and two of Dragoons are ordered to be rais'd.

Mr. Norris, youngeſt Son of Sir John Norris, is appointed Capt. of one of the new 20 Gun Ships.

CHARLES-TOWN.

On Tueſday the 9th Inſt. the Rev. Mr. Whitefield arrived here from Philadelphia, which Place he left about the middle of laſt Month: He ſet ſail from Reedy Iſland in the River Delaware, on the firſt of this Inſtant; when he had been 77 Days on Shore after his Arrival at Rhode Iſland, had rode upwards of 800 Miles, and had preach'd 133 Times, beſides very frequent Exhortations at private Houſes where he has been. — He has collected in Goods and Money upwards of 700 l. Sterling. Great and viſible are the Fruits of his late as well as his former Labours, and People ſeem, for the Generality, more eager after the Word than ever. He embark'd on Thurſday Morning laſt for Georgia, from whence he intends, God willing, to return hither in 3 Weeks or a Month, and then, by the firſt Opportunity, to leave this Place on a Voyage to England.
